Food May Morning Meeting

Our day meeting will be an extended one with a workshop. We will be doing a salad lunch.. Please bring a salad to share with others and anything you want to go with it. If you haven't brought something to share this year, please take this opportunity to share your favorite salad with us! We will provide drinks. Thanks... Can't wait to see the yummy salads.

Thanks to the gals who brought soup or fixings to the last workshop. They were enjoyed by all! Thanks to each of you.

Bonnie McLain

SUNSHINE—Caryl Knox

Marilyn Bradley is home now recovering from surgery. Marilyn sounded great. Said she doesn't need any help right now. We wish you a speedy recovery and just let us know if you need a ride to our next meeting.

Jorie Smetana's Mother-in-Law passed away. Letting you know that your CRQG sisters and brother are here for you and hope that you and your family are doing well. I was unable to reach her by phone.

CHEROKEE ROSE QUILT GUILD

April 26, 2012

The meeting started at 7:06pm. Dori Holt presided.

She wished HAPPY BIRTHDAYS to Dori Holt on the 3rd, Robin Meyers and Jorie Smetana on the 8th, Phyllis Carpenter on the 10th, Emma Parker on the 12th, and Vickie Hecht on the 19th.

Late-arrivers to the meeting, please be sure to sign-in with membership. It will be too late for tickets for door prizes as it will be too distracting for the meeting going on.

The program was presented by Pat Yearwood from Stitch 'n' Quilt. She showed us some new rulers, kits and "gifty" items from the quilt store. Sara and Jackie showed how to use the new rulers for strip piecing, quilt as you go and making cording. It was a great program. The "fun frenzy" began when we were given a chance to buy things from her shop.

There were two corrections. First, Vickie Pruitt did not win a door prize. Secondly, there were 17 members at the last meeting, not 10 members.

TREASURY REPORT: The treasury report was given by Tina Corbitt. There is $5851.61 in the treasury.

MEMBERSHIP: The "Fat Quarters" winner was Gail Ford. The monthly FQ challenge blocks will be assembled at the end of the year for a yet-to-be-determined donation.

Vickie Hecht handed out "Door Prizes" to the winners: Dawn Feist, Charlie Phaneuf, and Libby Armstrong. Pat Yearwood brought two additional gift certificates door prizes from the shop. The very happy winners were Loretta Ford and Jeanne Andersen.

There were 32 members and 1 visitor. The visitor was Loretta Ford.

HISTORIAN: Charlie asked if anyone had anything to add to the newspaper. He said that, if so, he would make sure it was added.

HOSPITALITY REPORT: The hospitality chairpersons, Bonnie McClain and Jori Smetana attend only the Day Meeting. The Guild has decided to have no Night Hospitality. If you still would like to bring something you may but, there is no hospitality chairperson for Night meetings.

LIBRARY: Broach Winsley brought some of the books from the Guild library. The library books are now kept at her house. Anyone wishing to check out a book should let her know. She has furnished a complete list of books and patterns. Call or email her with your desired book and she will bring it to the next meeting. If you check out a book please put the date, including the year, that you check it out. There are also some templates and patterns in the library that can be checked out on the honor system. Broach's email is broach-win@aol.com.

NEWSLETTER: Broach said the deadline for newsletter items is Saturday, April 28, 2012 by noon. She also wanted to announce Sweetwater Founder's Day is Saturday, April 28th, from 10 am. to 5 pm., at Sweetwater.

PROGRAMS: May 10: Doreen Thornton is demonstrating chicken scratch embroidery. Chicken Scratch is usually worked on gingham check in order to give it the lacy appearance which has made it so popular. Suzie Parron is giving a Barn Quilt lecture on May 24th..

PUBLICITY: There was no Publicity report.

SUNSHINE: Annie Kellum's and Marge Frost's quilts will be on display at the hospital starting Monday. Debbie Butler got married, and she is now Debbie Stovall. Jorie Smetana's mother-in-law passed away; please pray for her family.

TELEPHONE COMMITTEE: Charlene called everyone.

WAYS AND MEANS: Libby Armstrong raffled off an April Surprise bag, which was won by Dori Holt. She also has a quilt puzzle, which will be raffled off on during the May Daytime meeting. There is also a quilt kit-containing fabric and a ruler-which will be raffled off during the May Night meeting.

BEE KEEPER: The last Bee was at Jennie Hollis'. Everyone who attended had a good time. The next Bee will be at Dawn Feist's. (Directions will follow later). It will be a brown bag affair. She warned against wearing dark pants, as she has 3 cats with light colored fur.

CHALLENGE QUILT: Bev advised that participants need to "get busy" on their Challenge Quilts. For questions call Bev Mahle at 770-757-2473. The quilts are due at the night meeting in September.

CHRISTMAS COMMITTEE: The Christmas party will be December 6th. The Guild will be returning to Atlanta's Finest Catering and Event Center for our Christmas Party. Each member pays $20 (approximate cost) which includes the meal as well as the decorations. The best part is that THEY provide clean up!!

COMMUNITY SERVICES: Emma Parker has announced a new project - making placemats for Meals On Wheels. She made three and showed us examples for men and women. She stated that Meals on Wheels delivers about 160 meals a week to shut-ins. She stated that it would be really nice to have them delivered by Thanksgiving.

The Guild is continuing to work on the small wall-hangings for each 2012 graduate from the New Hope Project. The focal point on the scrappy background will be their symbol, the butterfly. The wall hangings should be no bigger than a 12" x12". Phyllis Carpenter turned in her two beautiful contributions. Phyl gave out fussy cut butterflies for these wall hangings. Please turn them in during the month of May. A total of 36 are needed. Carol Knox has graciously volunteered to embroider them with the words "New Hope"

THE GEORGIA QUILT COUNCIL: The next Quilt Council will be in October. The date will be announced later. Their web site is georgiaquiltcouncil.org

PHOTOGRAPHY: Dawn Feist reported that the photos from tonight will be sent right after the meeting. Thank you, Dawn, for stepping to the plate or should we say, “standing behind the camera.”

“QUILT TIL YOU WILT”: The date for the second Quilt ‘Til You Wilt is October 20th. The previous event drew 17 people, and all had a good time. The next event will once again be at Hunter Park.

WEBMISTRESS: Joany Orsi is still graciously filling this role. She has been spotted several times in the Douglasville area. The Guild is very glad to get her back into the area and can’t wait til she is able to attend Guild meetings.

Announcement: Denise Allee announced an August 18th Workshop on the One-Block Wonder. More information will follow for those interested in taking the class.

Quilt Show Announcement: Rachael thanked all those who attended the Double Wedding Ring Quilt Show at the Church at Chapel Hill on Monday night.

There was no new business or old business.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:35pm.
