President's Message

HAPPY NEW YEAR, EVERYONE! It would appear that the world has fooled the ancient Mayans. The world did not end in December and we can look forward to another year of quilting!!!

First, let me thank you for the opportunity to serve again as President. I truly appreciated your support in 2012 and ask for it in 2013. You are an amazing group of individuals that blend together to make our guild the success that it is.

For those of you who were unable to attend the Christmas party, you missed good food, good fellowship and an all around good time. Denise Allee and her committee did a lovely job.

We have another fine group of people this year who have volunteered to fill committee chairs and/or serve on various committees. I look forward to working with them as we anticipate another exciting year for Cherokee Rose. As always, if you have ideas, suggestions and yes, even complaints; please make your thoughts known to me or one of the officers. We will do our best to address your concerns to your satisfaction.

Attached (at the end) is a copy of the proposed budget for 2013. We will be voting on it at both meetings this month. Please review it and jot down any questions or comments that you have.

In closing, welcome back to another year for those of you who were with us in 2012, and welcome to you who are starting a new year by joining our guild for the first time or coming back after a long absence.

2013 PROGRAMS

The program committee would like to remind you that we plan to have a special show and tell at both of the January meetings with projects you made that were inspired by the guild in 2012. If your projects are only partially completed, bring them anyway. It will be nice to have a "Year in Review" to start the new year.

Our January 10th program will be "Quilting Using the Internet". Broach Winsley and Linda Jones will share with you their favorite sites for freebies, tutorials, and inspiration. A handout will be provided, however, if you would like to take notes it is suggested that you bring a notepad and pen.

On January 24th our program is presented by Linda Patton, who will give us an overview of the wonderful studio180 rulers. She is an expert on these tools and has a wealth of knowledge to share on why these tools work so well. Linda will return on March 14th, to teach a class using the Tucker Trimmer 1 ruler. We will need to start getting members to sign up for the class since the rulers will need to be ordered 4 weeks ahead of time. The fee for the March class and the ruler will be a total of $20, which is due by the end of February. Check our website after the January night program for a photo of the project we will be making in March. Linda Patton is making the free pattern for us so all we will need besides the ruler will be some fabric from your stash.

Check our website for the current list of programs for 2013. We have several exciting workshops already planned so please put these dates on your calendars so you won't miss out on the fun.

Ann Groves

Saturday Stitch-In (AKA Quilt Til You Wilt)

February 16 from 9am to 9pm will be the first 2013 Cherokee Rose Stitch-In (also known as Quilt Til You Wilt) in the ballroom at Hunter Park. Plan your projects, bring your machine and plan to spend a cold winter day in the warm glow of quilting and quilting and quilting!!

A big thanks to Ann Groves for organizing this fun activity for the past few years. Ann, we always had fun and made a lot of quilts! Thank you so much.

In 2013, we will emphasize the flexibility of our Saturday Stitch-Ins. We'll be there from 9am to 9pm, but YOU come when you can and stay as long as you can. We will have a demonstration designed to stretch your quilting skills and a potluck dinner around 5pm, convenient for daytime and evening quilters. Look for more information soon.

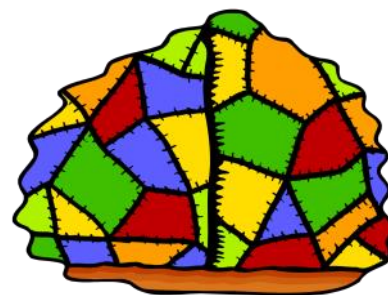

Robin Meyer is organizing our Saturday Stitch-Ins for 2013, but she is looking for some help! Volunteers are needed to organize the potluck dinner and bring ironing boards (and irons). Do you have ideas about what would make the day even more fun? Contact Robin at robinmeyerga@yahoo.com or 770 948-5394.

“Thoroughly Modern Quilts” Exhibit Opens January 14, 2013

ECQG has joined with the Atlanta Modern Quilt Guild (AMQG) to present an exhibit of modern and contemporary quilts opening January 14th at the Mable House Arts Center, 5239 Floyd Road in Mableton. 47 pieces from ECQG and AMQG members will be on exhibit until February 27th, thanks to the South Cobb Arts Alliance and the Cobb County Department of Parks, Recreation and Cultural Affairs.

The gallery is open Monday through Thursday from 9am to 4pm, and usually in the evenings when classes are in session. Call the Mable House at 770 819-3285 to confirm evening hours.

Be sure to catch this wonderful exhibit! It's a great field trip for bees, quilting friends, and anyone who loves art

MORE PROGRAM INFO FROM DENISE ALLEE

It's our first meeting of 2013 this Thursday, January 10th, at 9:30am.

Fat Quarter is "Blues" There is no making a block this year, if you are the winner.

Our program is "Quilters Favorite Internet Sites".

We plan to have a handout and using the projector and screen for the program.

Because of these changes, the room will be set up with no tables for the members.

This allows us to place the chairs close to the screen.

We want everyone to see and enjoy the presentation!

If you want to take notes, you should bring a notepad and pencil.

We are not having refreshments, however, if you want to bring something to drink it would be advised that it has a lid.

If you were able to finish (or close to finishing) any of the projects you started that were inspired by our guild, please bring them to the meeting.

We plan to have a "Year in Review" at the show and tell for both of our January meetings.

We will be voting on 2013 Budget.

We will also be voting on 2013 Christmas Party.

We are looking forward to seeing everyone after the Christmas break!
